Mr. J. T. Campbell, Head
BBC Monitoring Service
Caversham Park
Reading, Berks., England

Dear Mr. Campbell:

This is just a note to tell you how much I enjoyed meeting you, and to express my appreciation for your hospitality and that of the BBC staff in making my visit to Caversham both successful and pleasant. I hope that it will not be too far in the future before we can have an opportunity to see you in Washington.

I am getting back into the swing here and looking into the matters discussed with you and your staff. We shall disseminate your editorial guidance notes on BBC requirements to our field bureaus as soon as you are able to get them to us. We are also arranging to secure specific evaluations of the Stockholm material and have them in your hands by mid-May, in sufficient detail to support your presentation to the hard-headed financial people.

Thank you again for a very pleasant stay at Caversham. Please give my regards to Mrs. Campbell.

Sincerely,

[Redacted Signature]
